

THE KINDNESS DIARIES

CHANGING LIVES FROM FROM ALASKA TO ARGENTINA...

SEASON 2

KINDNESS MAKES A COMEBACK...

In the second season of The Kindness Diaries Leon Logothetis will drive a yellow electric car dubbed Kindness 2 from Alaska to the southern tip of Argentina relying solely on the kindness of others. No money, no food and no where to re-charge! What these unsuspecting good samaritans don't know is Leon will give surprise life-changing gifts along the way.

As if circumnavigating the globe wasn't difficult enough, Leon will now try to make his way down North & South America making the world a little kinder and greener along the way. Through adventure, compassion and heart Leon will trek over 10,000 miles to prove that the kindness in humanity still exists. From helping a First Nation family in need in Canada to an impoverished orphanage in Mexico to a struggling single parent in Argentina Leon's journey will push our definition of compassion and hope. In each episode he will find everyday people who give from their hearts and give back in any way he can. Buckle up as you join Leon on the adventure of a lifetime!
